June 2024 Booking Guide

Bookings Open 8:30am
Wednesday 4 October 2023

This booking guide covers all Rottnest Island Authority Accommodation; from self-contained units to the Campground and Hostel.

Your Island Adventure

Bookings for June 2024 will open on Wednesday 4 October 2023 at 8:30 am AWST.

This step-by-step guide is filled with expert tips and tricks to help you through the booking process ahead of Open Day.

Where to Go to Book

In general, almost 90% of successful bookings are made online within the first 30 minutes of an Open Day, so we recommend booking online.

While you can also book by calling our Reservations team on (+61) 1800 111 111, the simplest and most successful way is via the website at stayrottnest.com. The online queue also moves a lot faster than the phone lines.

Please understand that demand for bookings may be high and not everyone will be able to secure a reservation.

Booking for Accessibility

If you need wheelchair accessible accommodation, please send your request after 8:30am to stay@rottnestisland.com and don't forget to attach a copy of your ACROD Card (front and back). These requests are processed in the order they're received from 8:30am onwards on Open Day, so hold your email until then. Limit of one booking per ACROD Card.

In-person bookings are no longer accepted at our Fremantle office. Bookings are still possible at the Visitor Centre on Rottnest Island except on Open days.

Before You Book

You're making a list and checking it twice. Make sure you have all the below information to hand before you join the queue:

- Where you want to stay. Make a list of your top four choices, in case number one isn't available.
- When you want to stay (your check-in and check-out dates).
- What type of accommodation you want. Do you want an ocean view?
- How many of you there are. How many bedrooms do you need?
- Your contact details including your address, email address, phone number, and email.
- Your Visa or Mastercard details. We don't take Amex or Diners Cards, so put these away for now.

Ready to Go? Here's How it's Done.

1. Head to stayrottnest.com by 8:30 am AWST on Wednesday 4 October 2023. A tip: anyone in the virtual waiting room prior to 8:30 am will be assigned a random position in the queue when bookings open, whether they joined at 6 am or 8:25 am. But, if you join after 8:30 am, you'll join at the back of the queue.
2. Wait your turn, but don't walk away from your device. Even if your queue number feels high, you'll be surprised how fast it can move.
3. When it's your turn to book, you'll have 30 minutes to enter the booking site. If you don't enter within the 30 minutes, you'll have to join the back of the queue. This just helps keep the line moving for everyone else waiting.
4. Once you're in, simply search for your accommodation and make your booking. You can take as long as you like without being kicked off the site if you are actively using it; but remember – places fill fast and your booking is not confirmed until your payment details have been authorised.
5. You can book up to two units per transaction. If you want to book more units, you'll need to join the queue again. Remember, you'll remain as the primary guest for both units booked under your name.

Unless cancelled, the primary guest will remain as the owner of the booking, however they may nominate one person, as authorised to check-in to the accommodation on their behalf. The primary guest's details will remain on the booking and be liable for any costs incurred for the duration of the booking. This may include damage, cleaning fees or charges related to the behaviour of the guests staying within the accommodation.

You can select preferred bedding when booking online or contact Reservations at least seven days prior to arrival on (+61) 1800 111 111.

Please note that Stay Rottnest will no longer be accepting in-person bookings at Rottnest Island Authority's former offices at E Shed or new offices at Mews Road Fremantle.

Making new bookings or changing existing bookings will still be possible at the Visitor Centre on the island, except on Open Days.

Take It From Us

To give yourself the very best chance at success, book online and make sure you go to stayrotnest.com before 8:30 am to be assigned your randomised queue number. Remember, if you arrive after 8:30 am, you'll be at the back of the online queue.

Hot Tip

Go to stayrotnest.com now and play around on the online booking site. That way when Open Day rolls around you'll be familiar with the new features and all the information you'll need.

Put Pen to Paper

Write down what you want, as well as some back-up options. If you want to stay somewhere in particular, make note of the date ranges you're able to work with. If your dates aren't flexible, jot down some alternate accommodation or room options. There's a lot of pressure on the day to be quick, so having it all in front of you is always helpful.

Time to Cool Off

Try for your number one choice first and work backwards from there. There's a 14-day cooling off period on an open day if you need to change your booking.

What goes around comes around

Here's another tip for you ... there's a little unspoken karma at play on Open Days. So, like all good things, only take as much as you need. Occasionally we hear of someone booking more than they need, only to dump it later – and in the meantime, so many others miss out. Only book what you need, and we promise the karma will be kind.

Missed Out?

As much as we'd love to have all of you, we just can't accommodate everyone at the same time.

But awe and wonder aren't seasonal.

Beyond the beaches, spectacular events go by near unnoticed. From playful seals and stunning bird migrations to traditional smoking ceremonies and more, there's a whole other side to the island waiting to be discovered.

If you'd like to visit us later in the year, future Open Days are currently scheduled for:
