VISIT ALL YEAR ROUND

Basking in a Mediterranean-style Climate, Wadjemup / Rottnest Island is a Popular Destination All Year Round.

During summer (December to February), Wadjemup / Rottnest Island is usually a few degrees cooler than Perth with average temperatures hovering around the mid-high 20°C range.

Whereas in winter (June to August), it's usually a few degrees warmer than Perth, with an average daytime temperature of 19°C.

Water Temperature

The water surrounding the island is quite warm, thanks to the Leeuwin Current that flows along the west coast of Australia.

This warm current helps maintain the water temperature here around 23°C in summer and about 19°C in winter, perfect for enjoying the plethora of aquatic activities the island is known for.

A PEACEFUL CLASS A NATURE RESERVE

Wadjemup / Rottnest Island feels like a world away, yet is easily accessible from the mainland. The moment you step on to the island, Rottnest Island's laid-back lifestyle begins to take effect and you start to feel yourself relax as you transition into island-mode.

Rottnest Island's designation as a Class A Reserve aids in preserving and protecting its natural beauty, spectacular flora, abundant marine life and wildlife and many unique species.

One of the most popular ways to explore Rottnest Island is by cycling. The island is predominantly car-free, one of its most unique qualities setting it apart from other destinations.

There's no shortage of ways to acquaint yourself with the island's abundant wildlife and remarkable landscapes, as well as the many species of marine life inhabiting our pristine beaches.

HOW TO GET TO WADJEMUP / ROTTNEST ISLAND

The turquoise bays, aquatic activities, walking trails, historic attractions and abundant wildlife of Wadjemup / Rottnest Island are just a short ferry ride from Perth, Fremantle or Hillarys Ferry Terminals.

Situated close to Perth and Fremantle, visitors can enjoy Rottnest Island on a day trip. But there's so much to see and do here that a longer stay makes it possible to really experience the best of the island.

ROTTNEST ISLAND'S TOP TEN EXPERIENCES

Surrounded by the sparkling waters of the Indian Ocean, Wadjemup / Rottnest Island is the ultimate island escape to relax, recharge and reconnect. From turquoise bays and unique wildlife to rich culture and unforgettable adventures, there is something for every kind of traveller. Here are ten must-do experiences to help you make the most of your visit.

1. Explore Nature on Foot

Immerse yourself in the island's natural beauty along the Wadjemup Bidi, with five connected walking trails. See spectacular coastal headlands, stunning inland lakes and breathtaking vistas at your own pace, or on a tour with The Hike Collective.

2. Snorkel Crystal-Clear Waters

Dive into an underwater world of tropical fish, friendly stingrays, coral, and shipwrecks at a number of sheltered and protected bays. Hire your gear at Pedalddle & Flipper and follow the snorkel trails, or enjoy a guided tour with Rottnest Snorkel.

3. Fun and Friendly Competition

Experience the fun and energy of a game of pickleball at Bathurst Tennis Courts, or a relaxed round of golf or bowls at the Rottnest Island Golf Course.

4. See the Island by Boat

Soak in the coastline aboard Rottnest Cruises, Charter 1 and Eco Express, with seafood cruises and sunset sails, whale watching and thrilling jet boat rides.

5. Take to the Skies

Try a tandem skydive with Skydive Geronimo or enjoy a scenic joy flight with Rottnest Air-Taxi for a new (and thrilling) perspective of the island.

6. Connect with Culture

Learn about the island's Aboriginal history through cultural walks, art workshops and cultural yarning sessions withwith Go Cultural, Dooga Waalitj Healing, Mirliny and Koorda's Crew.

7. Step Back in Time

Explore the Wadjemup Museum, climb Wadjemup Lighthouse or take the Oliver Hill Gun and Tunnel Tour to uncover Rottnest's fascinating heritage.

8. Meet the Wildlife

Spot a friendly quokka and keep an eye out for seals, dolphins, migratory birds and humpback whales during migration season.

9. Tour on Wheels

Explore by bike, bus, segway or rickshaw with guided tours from Quokka Coaches, Rotto Rickshaws, Laura the Explorer and more.

10. Dine with a View

Sunset dining at one of the island's oceanfront restaurants is the perfect way to wrap up your island adventure.

Visit rotnestisland.com/trade to download sample itineraries.

DINING AND REFRESHMENTS

Wadjemup / Rottnest Island offers an extensive range of food and dining options to suit all budgets and tastes.

Visitors can self-cater with provisions purchased at one of the general stores, visit the bakery or casual outlets such as Subway.

At the West End, Lexi's on Rotto's vintage caravan offers refreshments for visitors exploring the island.

Across the island, cafés like Dome Café and The Lane Café and Geordie's Café & Art Gallery are places to relax. The island's restaurants prepare menus celebrating the quality and flavour of fresh Western Australian produce, seafood and wines.

And visitors enjoy the luxury of choosing from a host of stunning ocean views.

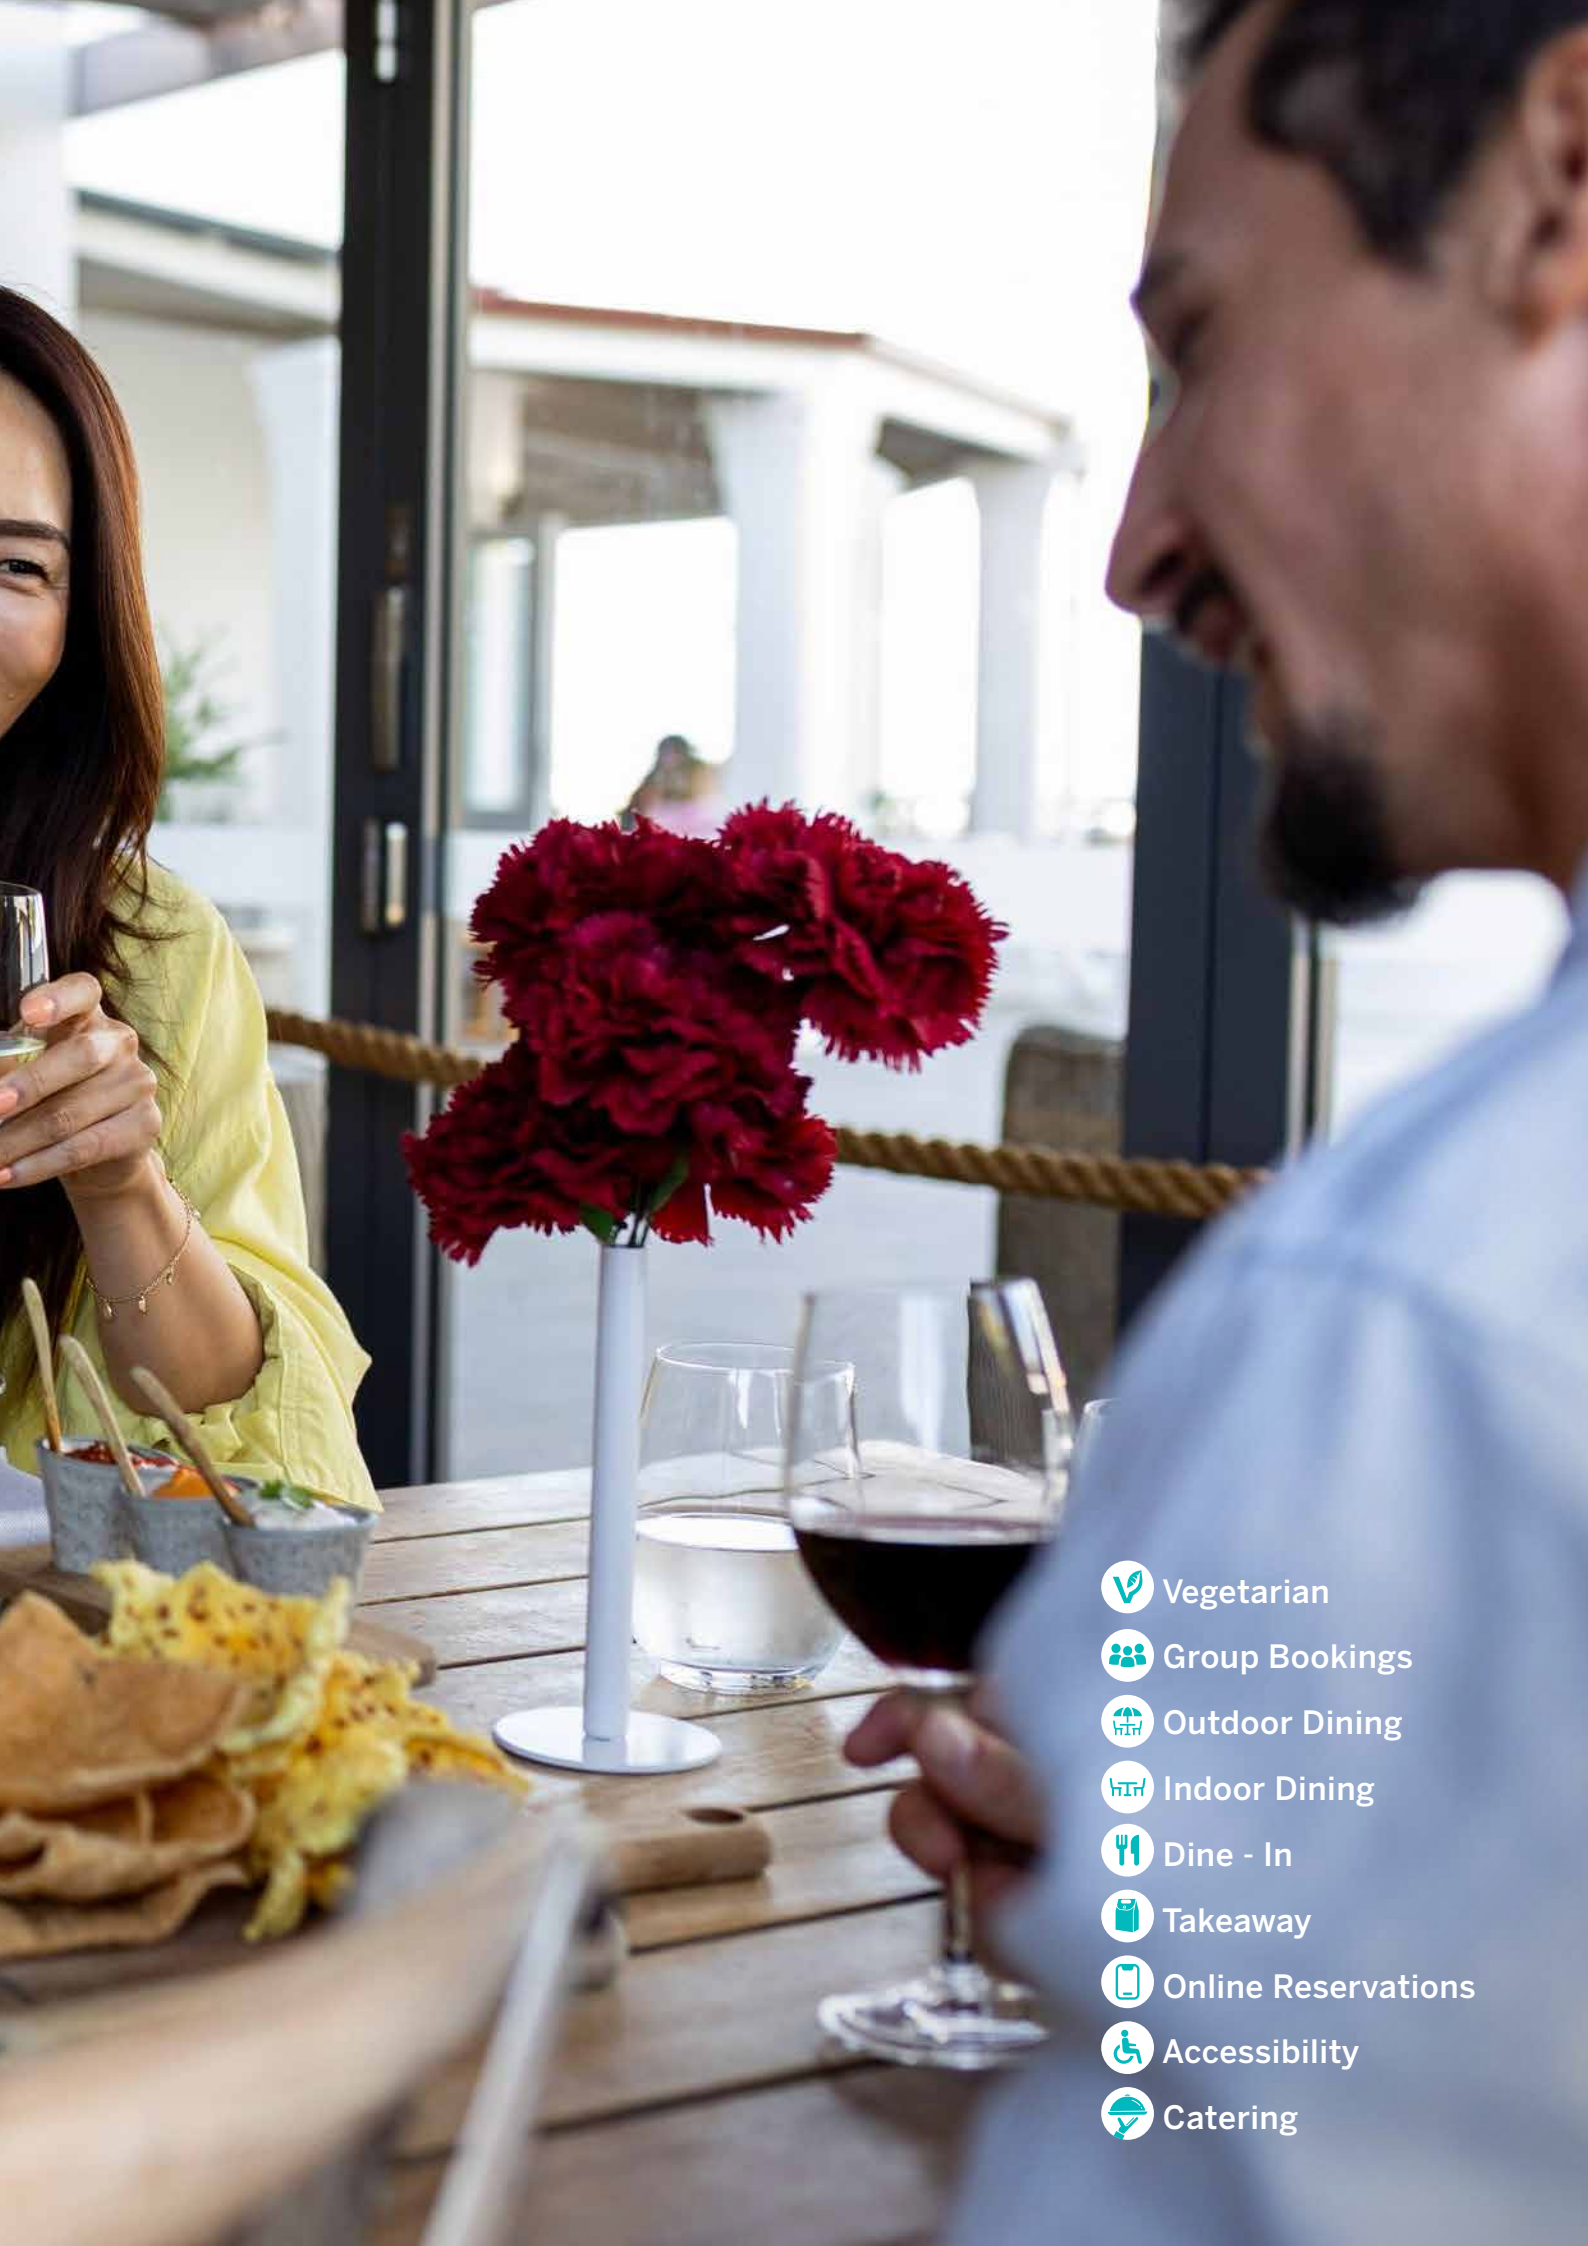

For something sweet, visitors can enjoy classic holiday treats from Simmo's Ice Cream, Kuld Creamery, or the charming Pelican kiosk, which delights with a selection of coffee and soft-serve ice cream.

The island offers a feast of dining destinations - from the iconic Hotel Rottnest overlooking Thomson Bay, Frankie's on Rotto, Pinky's Rottnest Island, Isola, to Lontara at Sapphire Rottnest.

Havza offers memorable dining framed by the The Basin, while Sunsets restaurant, located within The Lodge, provides a serene escape with views across Garden Lake.

The range covers quick and family-friendly, through to something a little more luxuriant and intimate.

MIRLINY CULTURAL YARNING EXPERIENCE

Immerse yourself in Noongar culture with the Mirliny Cultural Yarning Experience on Wadjemup. The 45-minute guided session with an Aboriginal guide fosters meaningful discussions about the island's cultural significance. Participants will explore ancient creation stories, the Noongar Six Seasons, and an introduction to Noongar language. Named after the balga fire stick, which symbolises warmth and connection, this experience aims to ignite respect and understanding of Noongar traditions as you deepen your appreciation for Wadjemup.
