WELCOME TO WADJEMUP / ROTTNEST ISLAND

Western Australia's Premier Island Escape

Located less than 20 kilometres from Western Australia's world-renowned port city of Fremantle, Wadjemup / Rottnest Island is an easily accessible destination.

Wadjemup / Rottnest Island is so close to Perth that it's visible from coastal vantage points on clear days, which is most often the case for Australia's sunniest capital city.

Wadjemup / Rottnest Island has been the destination of choice for Western Australians for generations, is also a "must see" destination for people visiting Western Australia from interstate and overseas.

VISIT ALL YEAR ROUND

Basking in a Mediterranean-style Climate, Wadjemup / Rottnest Island is a Popular Destination All Year Round.

During summer (December to February), Wadjemup / Rottnest Island is usually a few degrees cooler than Perth with average temperatures hovering around the mid to high 20 degrees celsius.

Whereas in winter (June to August), it's usually a few degrees warmer than Perth, with an average daytime temperature of 19 degrees celsius.

Water Temperature

Thanks to the Leeuwin Current that flows along the west coast of Australia the water surrounding the island is quite warm. This warm current is responsible for the water here being around 23 degrees celsius in summer and about 19 degrees celsius in winter making it perfect for enjoying the vast range of aquatic activities the island is known for.

A PEACEFUL CLASS A NATURE RESERVE

Wadjemup / Rottnest Island may be easily accessible from the mainland, but it feels like a world away. The moment you step onto the island, Rottnest's laidback lifestyle begins to take effect and you start to feel yourself relax as you transition into Rottnest mode.

As a Class A Reserve, Wadjemup / Rottnest Island preserves and protects its natural beauty; spectacular flora, abundant marine life and wildlife and many unique species.

The island is unique for many reasons, but perhaps one of the most noticeable differences to other destinations is that it's predominantly car-free.

Therefore, one of the most popular ways to explore the island is by cycling.

There's no shortage of ways to acquaint yourself with the island's abundant wildlife and remarkable landscapes, as well as the many species of marine life inhabiting our many pristine beaches.
